“At Home” Fumetto Comic Competition Fumetto Comic Festival Luzern March 18–26, 2023

Deadline:
January 2ND, 2023

Our home is definitely the core of our private lives! It's the place where we want to let loose, hang out with our family and friends or find an escape from our hectic everyday lives. The living room transforms into a place of meeting people, which can also convert into a fitness room or a dance floor, as needed.

However, excessively high rents, a constantly leaking sink or way too loud neighbors are also a part of reality. Is your neighbors garden party a welcome change or just another frustration to endure? Or does it maybe create an interesting, unique experience that inspires a drawing?

What is “at home” to you? What do you love about living? And what experiences with living could you do without? Draw us your funny or annoying stories about living and with it your take on the many-sided world of living!
